An Evidence-Based Phonics Program

Melbourne training 19-22 January 2015

Sounds-Write is an evidence-based and highly successful synthetic phonics program for teaching reading, spelling and writing, see www.sounds-write.co.uk.

This four day intensive course for teachers, tutors, therapists, parents and others offers an instructional method that is structured, cumulative, sequential and explicit, covering the concepts about sounds and spellings students need to learn, and practicing each lesson's teaching and error correction procedures.

Sounds-Write is developmentally appropriate for beginning readers in Pre-Primary, Year 1 and Year 2, and also offers fast and highly effective intervention for learners at all levels who have fallen behind in their reading and spelling.

Presenters: registered Sounds-Write trainer and tutor Mary Gladstone (seated on right in photo) is a primary school teacher with 38 years' experience, mostly with children with learning and behavioural difficulties, who holds a Diploma of Specific Learning Difficulties (Dyslexia). John Walker is one of the UK authors of Sounds-Write, and will present the final day of the course.

The course's local organiser/host is Alison Clarke, Speech Pathologist of the Clifton Hill Child and Adolescent Therapy Group, Learning Difficulties Australia Council and Spelfabet website and materials, www.spelfabet.com.au, phone 0402 075 306.

Where: Mercure Hotel, cnr Flemington Rd and Harker St, North Melbourne

When: 9.00am to 3.45pm, Monday 19th to Thursday 22nd January 2015.

Cost: Full price: $660, Learning Difficulties Australia members and students: $630

Registration includes morning teas and lunches plus a folder and a memory stick of teaching materials/resources.
